Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

312/undercover

November 23, 1922. Continuing on the above matter, Operative proceeded to the Middlesex Lunchroom, having breakfast there at 8.30 a.m.

Operative upon leaving the Middlesex Lunchroom roamed about Town.

At about 11 a.m. Operative located in the railroad station. While at the railroad station Operative learned that a fellow by the name of Mulvey was at one time connected with the District Attorney's Office. It seems that Mulvey and Kirby are working about Town gathering information for the Officials in an effort to locate whatever new witnesses there might be. From general conversation about the station it would seem that Mrs. Gibson is well tuned up by the Officials and that everything will be done to discredit the Russell woman. It seems that a number of women have combined and are going around with a petition to have people sign regarding the character of Mrs. Hall. As far as Operative could learn, the above mentioned women are members of Dr. Hall's Church.

Operative learned while at the railroad station that the Officials intend to go up to Phillips Farm during the evening accompanied by a woman who is to wear a Gray colored Coat, for the purpose of making certain that Mrs. Gibson's identification will stand up. As far as Operative could learn, the above experiment was to take place between 9 and 9.30 p.m.

Operative roamed about Town locating at George & Albany Sts for a time, also at the railroad station and the Middlesex Lunchroom, but gathered no further information other than that mentioned above.

At about 11 p.m. Operative proceeded to his room and discontinued.
